Forever more I'll love you, Lord
For our love is eternal
Always you will be
The only one for me
For our love is eternal

You are the only one I long for
And where you are, I want to be
You are the maker of my hopes and dreams
You mean more than anything to me

Throughout my life I've looked for someone
One who could fill this void inside
When I met you
You went beyond my hearts desire
Your love set my heart on fire
